OUR TICKET. Although the county preferred O'Ferrall, yet we are enthusiastic over our nominee and will rally to his support to a man. Our friends the enemy could not have pleased us better than by nominating Mahone. It will bring out every Democratic vote in the county and cause many Republicans to scratch the ticket. The outlook for Democracy is brighter than for years in this county. Everythan for years in this county. Everything is conspiring for our good.

The selection by the Republicans of Dictator Mahone for their candidate evidently inspires no enthusiasm in the such that party in this section. The negroes, of course, can always be counted on as solid for the ticket regardless of its personnel.

> A FATAL MISTAKE. A Very Mysterious Murder-A Cutting

CHARLOTTE, N. C., August 27.—Nows of the very sad death of a young man in Stanley county is received here tonight. James W. Orley, who graduated a few weeks ago with high honors, was a few days after his return home prostrated with fever. He was, however, getting along nicely, and the attending physician pronounced him entirely out of danger, but Sunday night his mother of danger, but Sunday night his mother through mistake administered him an overdose of landanum. The young man number of white males over twenty-one at once fell asleep never to awake. His mother is entirely overcome with grief, and it is feared will lose her mind.

There is excitement in Wilkes county caused by a mysterious crime committed there Sunday. John Pendergrass and his wife, both aged about thirty years, went to church Sunday night in a buggy. The church is about three miles from their residence. Yesterday they were found about fifty yards from the roadthe proper places near their house, and nothing else had been molested in the least. Pendergrass and his wife both refuse to say anything in regard to the affair.

The Southern Planter, a weekly agricultural paper published at Monroe, has suspended. Evangelist Leitch has for the past two weeks been conducting a very successful revival at Monroe. The meeting con-tinues, and great interest is being manifested.

Two women, Alice Murry and Mary Axletra, engaged in a serious cutting affair yesterday in Anson. They quarrelled about a man, and finally came to blows. Each carried a sharp knife in their pockets, and soon they were called the cloud-burst, as was telepraphed the Dispatch last night. Fortunately the cloud-burst occurred on Sunday, when no hands were in the mills, or many might have perished. The mills are damaged to the amount of $125,000, while five miles of the Carolina Central railroad will have to be rebuilt almost complete. As a natural result the crops along the Pee Dee river are ruined. Mr. George W. Graham, a very pro-minent citizen of Charlotte, was married this afternoon at 5 o'clock to Miss Alice M. Alexander, daughter of the late Dr. Winston Alexander. The marriage was very quiet, only the very friends and relatives being invited. The happy couple left at once on the north-bound train for a bridal tour to Washington and the West. [Special telegram to the Dispatch.]
